

Offret couple to celebrate golden wedding anniversary with open house

1992

DeVar E. and Mildred Offret of Provo celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Wednesday, Aug. 16, with a special luncheon at their home. A family gathering will honor them Sunday, August 27, 2-4 p.m., at their son's home, 2077 W. 1600 North, Provo. The event is open to all friends and relatives. They request no gifts.

DeVar, a son of Yves Marion Offret and Bertha E. Bates, and Mildred, a daughter of Andrew Johnson and Jane Nelson, both grew up in Provo. They were married Aug. 16, 1939. Their early years were spent at Wildwood Resort, Provo Canyon in their summer cabin.

DeVar served in Merchant Marines stationed at Catalina. During his working career he worked at Geneva, Provo City Reserve Police for 15 years and Wards Body Shop until he retired. He has led an active life hunting, fishing, camping and loves to work in their yard and garden.

Mildred also has led an active life and enjoyed many of the activities along with him, camping, traveling

Mr. and Mrs.
DeVar E. Offret

and bowling. She enjoys cooking and spending time with her grandchildren.

They have two sons, Lannie and Corey, both Provo, and four grandchildren.

196 So 900 W Provo

874-1056

Offret couple to celebrate golden wedding anniversary with open house

DeVar E. and Mildred Offret of Provo celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Wednesday, Aug. 16, with a special luncheon at their home. A family gathering will honor them Sunday, August 27, 2-4 p.m., at their son's home, 2077 W. 1600 North, Provo. The event is open to all friends and relatives. They request no gifts.

DeVar, a son of Yves Marion Offret and Bertha E. Bates, and Mildred, a daughter of Andrew Johnson and Jane Nelson, both grew up in Provo. They were married Aug. 16, 1939. Their early years were spent at Wildwood Resort, Provo Canyon in their summer cabin.

DeVar served in Merchant Marines stationed at Catalina. During his working career he worked at Geneva, Provo City Reserve Police for 15 years and Wards Body Shop until he retired. He has led an active life hunting, fishing, camping and loves to work in their yard and garden.

Mildred also has led an active life and enjoyed many of the activities along with him, camping, traveling

Mr. and Mrs.
DeVar E. Offret

and bowling. She enjoys cooking and spending time with her grandchildren.

They have two sons, Lannie and Korey, both Provo, and four grandchildren.

*196 So 900 W Provo
374-1056*